Re WFO teletype dated 8/20/71 and WFO airtel dated 8/20/71.

Enclosed for Los Angeles are 8 documents as described in reairtel.

These documents should be treated as evidence.

These documents, received from WFO, were examined by officials at Xerox, Rochester, N.Y. Xerox officials advised it would be necessary to reproduce six generations of each page from Set A and B on the Xerox 914 machine and each of these must be reproduced on the Savin 230 machine, therefore, the following leads are being set forth:

LEADS

The "Yale Daily News", (YDN) a Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, daily student campus publication of 2/16/71 on page 1, carried an article captioned "Anti-War Tactics Discussed."

The article reported that a meeting was held in Pierson College, Common Room, Yale University, on the evening of 2/15/71. The purpose of the meeting was to "break the silence on Laos, on the war, and in ourselves" and was considered "an initial attempt to reawaken people and get things moving again."

Among the main speakers and organizers listed was Psychology Professor ROBERT LIFTON.

The YDN of 2/4/71, on page 1, carried an article entitled "Dellinger Highlights Teach-In on Developments in Vietnam."

The article stated that "DAVID DELLINGER, a member of the Chicago Conspiracy 7 and editor of 'Liberation Magazine' was one of five speakers at a teach-in dealing with recent developments in South Vietnam, held at Battell Chapel, Yale University, New Haven, Conn. on the evening of 2/3/71. The teach-in was sponsored by The Yale Movement for the Peoples Peace Treaty."

Also among these speakers was ROBERT JAY LIFTON, Yale Professor of Psychiatry.

LIFTON began the proceedings with a description of "psychic numbing" as seen in U.S. Troops in Vietnam. He described this phenomenon as "being an artificially induced dehumanization of the mind". He went on "those soldiers have the illusions that in gunning down babies and women, they are fighting the enemy". He added that he found these same men, when they had returned home "were starting to emerge as a real anti-war force because of their efforts to re-humanize themselves".

During the period December 1-3, 1970, at the Embassy Room, Dupont Plaza Hotel, Washington, D.C, War Crime Commission Hearings were held by the National Veterans Inquiry of the U.S. War Crimes Policy, sponsored by the National Committee for a Citizens Commission of Inquiry on U.S. War Crimes in Vietnam, also known as Citizens Commission of Inquiry (CCI).

CCI has been characterized as an anti-war group with a New Left political orientation seeking a national inquest of the war crimes question.

Among the speakers on 12/2/70 was Professor ROBERT J. LIFTON, Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, who described the acts of atrocity committed by U.S. Troops as being the result of "psychic numbing - - the loss of the capacity to feel - - and of general brutalization."

The "New Haven Register", a New Haven, Connecticut daily newspaper, of 10/20/70 on page 44, carried an article captioned "Anti-War Rally Planned October 31 by Peace Group."

The article indicates that a press conference held that date by the Connecticut Peace Action Coalition announced plans for an anti-war rally on the New Haven Green, 10/31/70, and the launching of a petition drive "to put the question of the Vietnam War before the Conn. voters." It was further announced that "several teach-in programs will be held at a number of colleges in the New Haven area, starting next week. One of the speakers will be Yale Professor ROBERT LIFTON."

The National Peace Action Coalition was founded in 1970 by members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). Its basic objective is to unite masses of people including labor unions, GIs, and the black community in the struggle to end United States intervention in Southeast Asia through orderly and peaceful tactics.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The YDN of 10/20/69 on page 1 carried an article captioned "Moratorium Committee Emerges in 'Non-Support' of 11/15 March on Washington."

The article indicates the position of the New Haven Moratorium Committee as that of rather than aiding the "March" effort to "invite every member of Congress from Conn. to come home on 11/13 and 14 to discuss the war with his constituents."

Among members of the Moratorium Executive Committee listed was Professor of Psychiatry Dr. ROBERT JAY LIFTON.

The YDN of February 4, 1969, on page 1, carried an article captioned, "'Research Stoppage' Planned for March."

The article indicates that a group of graduate students and faculty are planning a university-wide "research stoppage" from March 4 to stop uses and abuses of scientific research in America.

One of the planners, Professor ROBERT LIFTON, said it is being planned to "critically examine the dangers of corrupting scientific research."

It indicates that particular emphasis will be given to the social and ethical implications of defense research in biological and nuclear warfare, according to LIFTON. LIFTON indicates that although it is aimed primarily toward the sciences, it could become a university-wide "teach-in."

The article indicates that detailed plans have not yet been completed. LIFTON stated the convocation will be a day long "series of talks and discussions focusing on the problems of nuclear arms and chemical warfare." It stated "A Science Action Coordinating Committee," (SACC), at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, (MIT), issued faculty and student statements in January calling for a stoppage to all research activity on March 4, to dramatize their concern over the misuse of scientific and technical knowledge."

The August 15, 1963, issue of the "Provincetown, Massachusetts, Advocate" contains an article with a photograph of Dr. ROBERT J. LIFTON, Associate Professor of Psychiatry, Yale University, "as he makes a plea for the elimination of atomic destruction. . ."

The October 5, 1964, issue of the Yale Daily News contains an article captioned, "Student Groups Flourish -- Politics on the Rise." The article indicates that Dr. R. J. LIFTON is a faculty advisor to Alternative, a Yale organization for research and education in the Dynamics of Peace.

Alternative, according to the article, was founded by a group of Freshmen in 1963, and has split into two groups, the Peace Action Committee, consisting of fifteen active members and non-action group, who consented to their name on a mailing list. This group is known under the whole name, "Alternative."

The October 10, 1965, issue of "The Washington Post," a Washington, D.C. daily publication on page A13 contained an advertisement by the National Committee for the Repeal of the McCarran Act, which contained the names of some three hundred people, called upon the "Executive and Legislative Representatives to re-assess an Act, which, born in panic and productive of fear, adds nothing to our security and diminishes the honor of a democracy." Contained among the names is Dr. ROBERT JAY LIFTON, Associate Professor of Psychiatry, Yale University.

[REDACTED] the National Committee for Repeal of the MC CARRAN Act, (NCRMA) maintains a mailing address of Room 318, 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

[REDACTED] the NCRMA was the outgrowth of an Ad Hoc Committee of Initiators, headed by Professor CLYDE MILLER of New York, who solicited signatures to a petition to the President of the United States in 1962, which called for the repeal of the MC CARRAN Act. The NCRMA held its formation meeting at Chicago on May 18, 1963; the stated purpose of the committee is to seek repeal of the Internal Security Act of 1950, as amended.

[REDACTED] the Communist Party (CP) interest in NCRMA had been to give it full support and approval and the CP took the position that the committee's composition must be extremely broad and the Party's direct influence must be kept to a minimum. The CP believed the new committee would serve its purpose in fighting the MC CARRAN Act alone and the CP had everything to gain by taking this position.

[REDACTED]

CLYDE MILLER, according to the "Daily Worker" issue of March 5, 1941, was a signer of a statement to the President defending the CP.

The "Daily Worker" was an east coast communist daily newspaper which ceased publication January 13, 1958.

The Yale Daily News of January 17, 1968, on page one, carries an article captioned, "Two Statements - - Professors Support Coffin."

The article indicates that Yale faculty members have released two statements supporting the Rev. WILLIAM SLOANE COFFIN, in response to his recent indictment for aiding draft resisters.

"One statement, offered to the entire Yale faculty for signing, 'connects what COFFIN is doing, to the country at large,' according to Psychiatry Professor Dr. ROBERT LIFTON, one of the statement's sponsors."

The current Yale University Faculty Directory reveals that Reverend WILLIAM SLOANE COFFIN, Jr., is University Chaplain and Pastor of the Church of Christ in Yale University, and resides at 66 Wall Street, New Haven, Connecticut.

WILLIAM SLOANE COFFIN, JR., along with Dr. BENJAMIN SPOCK, IRA GOODMAN, MICHAEL K. FERBER and MARCUS G. RASKIN, was indicted by Federal Grand Jury in Boston, Massachusetts, On January 5, 1968, and charged with violation of Title 50, United States Code, Appendix, Section 462 (a), conspiracy to counsel, aid and abet refusal to serve in the armed forces and to perform other duties required by the draft law and conspiracy to hinder the administration of the draft law.

These individuals, with the exception of MARCUS RASKIN, were convicted on June 14, 1968, in United States District Court, Boston, Massachusetts; RASKIN was found not guilty and was discharged.

On 7/11/69, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit Court acquitted SPOCK and FERBER and ordered a new trial for GOODMAN and COFFIN. On 4/15/70, the office of the USA, Boston, Mass., filed a Nolle Prosequi thereby declining prosecution in the GOODMAN and COFFIN cases.

The YDN of January 29, 1968, on page 1, carried an article captioned, "Teach-In' Backs Coffin, Cites War's Immorality." The article indicated that ROBERT LIFTON, Associate Professor of Psychiatry, among others, reviewed elements of the Vietnam War on January 28, 1968, in the Yale Law School Auditorium.

NH 65-2389

LIFTON, a psychiatry professor, probed "guilt anxiety" as a force behind resistance. "When I was in Vietnam last summer," he said, "I found myself experiencing this anxiety and self-condemnation."

He said the protestor appropriately responds to this guilt, while others become indifferent through "psychic numbing" a product largely of government propaganda.

Enclosed for Boston is one copy of a subpoena directed to the C&P Telephone Company of Washington, D. C. (WDC), for toll records of long distance calls charged to the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., WDC, from January, 1970, to the present date. Toll call records include charges to IPS telephone numbers 234-9382, 9383, 9384 and 9385. Subpoena was served on C&P Telephone Company on 9/2/71.

C&P Telephone Company of WDC furnished copies of the above long distance telephone charges on 9/3/71 to WFO. These records contain about 5,000 telephone calls dating from March, 1971. The C&P Telephone Company regularly destroys records of long distance telephone charges after six months. It was noted, however, that IPS toll records obtained by WFO include some charges dating back as late as December, 1970.

WFO will review telephone company records, set out leads by airtel to offices covering locations of listed telephone numbers, requesting recipient offices to identify subscribers, check office indices, and conduct any logical investigation considered advisable in order to develop appropriate background data. WFO will instruct recipient offices to furnish results of investigation by airtel to WFO singly. WFO will review data submitted and will report that information considered pertinent to captioned investigation.

Synopsis:

"Miami Herald" of 6/24/71 contained articles which included information excerpted from the "MC NAMARA study of the Vietnam war." LEE HILLS, President and Executive Editor of Knight Newspapers, Inc., declared in a front page statement that the articles published in the Knight newspapers 6/24/71, relating to Vietnam, were drawn from portions of the MC NAMARA study, also referred to by HILLS as the "Pentagon papers." HILLS indicated these documents had been examined by Knight editors. "Miami Herald" of 6/27/71 contains articles prepared by the Herald Washington Bureau. Editorial comment on the first page referred to the "Pentagon papers" and stated that portions of them were made available to the Knight newspapers. "Miami Herald" of 7/4/71 contained an article described as a review of highlights of the Pentagon papers. An individual named SUSAN SHEEHAN traveled on Eastern Airlines from New York City to Washington, D.C., on 6/21/71. [REDACTED] of the "Miami Herald," advised that he believes copies of the Pentagon papers were obtained for Knight newspapers by [REDACTED] the Herald Washington Bureau.

A review of the "Miami Herald" for Thursday, June 24, 1971, disclosed the following information:

The front page contains a short editorial comment, captioned "Statement From Knight Newspapers." Datedlined Washington, this statement was issued on Tuesday (June 22, 1971) by LEE HILLS, president and executive editor of Knight Newspapers, Inc.

In this statement, HILLS stated that the stories published in the Knight Newspapers of June 24, 1971, relating to the Vietnam War were drawn from a portion of the "McNamara Study of the Vietnam War." He said that these articles were drawn from portions of the documents contained in that study which had been examined by Knight editors.

Also on the front page of the "Miami Herald" for June 24, 1971, is an article prepared by the "Herald Washington Bureau," datelined Washington. This article began as follows:

"Portions of the Pentagon history of the Vietnam War were made available to the Miami Herald and other Knight newspapers this week.

"Previously unpublished material in the documents traces the step-by-step escalation of the war - in the air and on the ground - from 1965 until the great turn-around in 1968." The remainder of the article is a summary of major points contained in the McNamara Study.

Pages 32-A, 33-A and 34-A of the same issue contained six articles relating to the history of the Vietnam War, all indicating that they were prepared by the Herald Washington Bureau.

In a box on page 32-A, captioned "On the Knight Vietnam Team," the following appears:

"The Knight Newspapers staff members who produced the Pentagon Vietnam history stories in today's Herald are:

"ROBERT S. ROYD, Washington Bureau Chief.

"SAUL FRIEDMAN and LOYE MILLER, JR., members of the Washington Bureau.

"MARK ETHRIDGE, JR., editor of the Detroit Free Press.

"C. A. MC KNIGHT, editor of the Charlotte Observer.

"Project supervisor was KNI Director of News DERICK DANIELS."

The first of the articles on page 32-A is captioned "Was NIXON's Role Scant in '54 Decisions?" The first paragraph of this article refers to "Pentagon documents made available to Knight newspapers."

The second article on page 32-A is captioned "U.S. Poured Its Troops In, Then Found Self In 'Trap'". Paragraph four of this article refers to previously unpublished portions of the secret Pentagon papers which were made available to Knight newspapers. Paragraph six of this article speaks of parts of the Pentagon study received by the "New York Times." Paragraph seven refers to additional documents made available to Knight newspapers.

The first article appearing on page 33-A is captioned "U.S. Scheme: Oust DIEM, Cut Back Commitment." Paragraph six of this article refers to "the Pentagon documents made available to Knight newspapers...."

The second article on page 33-A is captioned "Tet: Rosy Reports Preceded the Gloom." Paragraph three of this article refers to "Pentagon papers which have come into the hands of Knight newspapers...."

The first article appearing on page 34-A is captioned "McNAMARA Pushed Bombing; Saw It Fail." Paragraph three of this article refers to "previously published portions of the Pentagon papers..." and paragraph four of the article mentioned "new documents made available to Knight newspapers...."

The second article appearing on page 34-A is captioned "LBJ's Turn-About A Painful End To 'More of Same.'" Paragraph four of this article mentioned "Pentagon study papers which were made available to Knight newspapers."

The issue of the "Miami Herald" for Sunday, June 27, 1971, contained four articles prepared by the "Herald Washington Bureau." One of these appeared on the front page and was captioned "LBJ Resisted Invasion of Cambodia, Laos." This story was written by LOYE MILLER, JR. Editorial comment accompanying this story indicates that it was based on extracts from the Pentagon papers on the history of the Vietnam War, described as "a massive study commissioned by former defense secretary ROBERT S. MC NAMARA." It is also stated that "portions of the papers were made available to the Knight newspapers last week. Earlier stories based on these documents were printed in the 'Miami Herald' last Thursday."

The front page article by LOYE MILLER, JR., indicates in the first paragraph that it was based on "the secret Pentagon papers" and paragraph three refers to "the Pentagon archives."

The second of the four articles contained in the issue of June 27, 1971, was on page 22-A and was captioned "RUSK: Don't Bomb Hanoi During Peace Try." This article was written by ROBERT S. BOYD, identified as the Herald Washington Bureau Chief. Paragraph 11 of this article discloses that some of the information contained therein was taken from the "Pentagon papers on the history of the war."

Another article appears on page 23-A and is captioned "Since TRUMAN, Our Indochina Policy Has Been 'Dominoes', Papers Show." This article was written by SAUL FRIEDMAN, identified as an employee of the "Herald Washington Bureau." Paragraph four of this article refers to "Pentagon papers available to Knight newspapers...." and indicates that the information contained in this article was taken from those papers.

An insert near the top of the page contained a quoted sentence and indicates that this sentence was taken from "a secret document providing the basis for the 'domino principle.'"

The fourth article appearing in the June 27, 1971, issue appears on page 23-A and is captioned "CIA Report Indicates LBJ In Error On Civilian Toll." This article consisted of five short items, each containing quoted material.

Item number one refers to a secret CIA report and quotes directly from the report.

The second item refers to a cable sent by U.S. Ambassador HENRY CABOT LODGE to Washington and quotes directly from the cable.

The third item quotes directly from a memorandum written by Assistant Secretary of State WILLIAM BUNDY.

The fourth item quotes directly from comments made by an individual described as "the Pentagon papers analyst."

The fifth item quotes directly from a memorandum sent to the President on April 12, 1966, by U.S. Ambassador in Saigon, MAXWELL TAYLOR.

The issue of the "Miami Herald", dated July 4, 1971, contained on page 20-A an article written by PETER ARNETT, identified as an Associated Press writer. In an introduction to the article, the "Miami Herald" referred to ARNETT as "a Pulitzer prize winner." This article is described as a review of the highlights of the Pentagon papers, chronological from the end of World War II to 1968.

Page 20-A also contains four articles which are UPI releases. They are stories based on items previously published in the "Washington Post", the "St. Louis Post-Dispatch", the "Boston Globe" and "The New York Times."

Miami Herald," Miami, Florida, advised as follows:

The "Miami Herald" is one of a group of newspapers published by Knight Newspapers, Inc. The others in the group are the "Detroit Free Press," the "Akron Beacon Journal," the "Philadelphia Inquirer," the "Charlotte Observer," the "Macon Telegraph News," and the "Tallahassee Democrat." These newspapers are under the overall supervision of President and Executive Editor LEE HILLS, who has his offices on the premises of the "Detroit Free Press" in Detroit, Michigan.

Articles which appeared in the "Miami Herald" on June 24, 1971, June 27, 1971, and July 4, 1971, were furnished to the Herald by news wire from Washington, D. C. None of the documents on which the articles were based was transported to Miami. The documents themselves have not been seen by any editor, reporter or other employee of the "Miami Herald."

[REDACTED] advised that he has no first-hand knowledge regarding the manner in which copies of the documents known as the "Pentagon papers" came into possession of the Knight newspapers. He noted that he is aware that there was an editorial meeting in Washington, D. C. involving editors of some of the Knight newspapers, as well as members of the Herald Washington Bureau. He said that LEE HILLS was probably present at that meeting but that no editor, reporter or other employee of the "Miami Herald" attended the meeting.

[REDACTED] stated he believes that a member of the Herald Washington Bureau, probably [REDACTED] acquired physical possession of the "Pentagon papers"

On 8/27/71 the Department arranged for the issuance of a Boston grand jury subpoena in the Daniel Ellsberg case for the purpose of securing toll records of long-distance telephone calls made from telephone numbers listed to the New Left "think tank" type organization in Washington, D. C., known as the Institute for Policy Studies. Past investigation has shown that this group has had "McNamara Study" material in its possession and that members of it have been associated with and in contact with Ellsberg.

It is anticipated that the record of telephone calls for the Institute for Policy Studies will be very extensive and investigation will be necessary to identify individuals called and in some instances to conduct interviews with them.

ST-106

REC-4

On 9/1/71 Assistant Special Agent in Charge [redacted] of Boston Office advised that when in the past telephone toll call records have been subpoenaed by the Boston grand jury the Boston Office has undertaken to study the telephone company records and set out pertinent leads. He said that since Washington Field Office (WFO) is origin in the case on the Institute for Policy Studies, he felt that WFO would be in a better position to undertake a study of the records of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company subpoenaed and set out pertinent leads, not only with regard to captioned investigation but with regard to the investigation of the Institute. [redacted] as advised that this procedure would be satisfactory but that the matter should be discussed by him with WFO.

Later in the day on 9/1/71 Supervisor [redacted] of WFO advised that he concurred with [redacted] thoughts and that WFO would set out leads in captioned matter regarding any logical investigation based upon a review of the toll call records. Results of coverage of such leads will be furnished to WFO and that office will thereafter coordinate these results and report pertinent information either in captioned case, in the case on the

HE STATED THIS MORAL ISSUE AFFECTED HIS FAMILY LIFE AND HE AND HIS WIFE OF ONE YEAR DRIFTED APART BECAUSE OF HER OPPOSITION TO THE VIETNAM WAR AT A TIME WHEN HE WAS STILL WORKING FOR THE GOVT. BY SIXTY NINE HE HAD CHANGED HIS MIND COMPLETELY CONCERNING U.S. INVOLVEMENT. HE FELT BECAUSE NO U.S. LEADER WANTS TO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR LOSING THE WAR, POLICY RE ENDING THE WAR WAS IMPOSSIBLE TO ACHIEVE WITHOUT CHANGING THE ENVIRONMENT OF POLICY MAKING AND IN THIS REGARD CONGRESS, THE PUBLIC AND THE PRESIDENT ARE GUILTY AND HAVE SHIRKED THEIR RESPONSIBILITIES.

LEAKS OF CLASSIFIED INFORMATION TO THE PRESS

To summarize, for information, data received during the night from offices involved in our continuing investigations of alleged leaks of classified data to the press.

MC LEK (Daniel Ellsberg):

[redacted] Arlington, Virginia, advised that he worked on the "McNamara study" with Ellsberg and recalled that prior to Ellsberg's assignment in Vietnam in 1965 Ellsberg had expressed the opinion that the situation in Vietnam was bad and felt the U.S. should bomb North Vietnam. Upon his return from Vietnam, Ellsberg had changed his views and felt that the U.S. should withdraw from Vietnam. [redacted] related that he had first met Ellsberg in 1963 and commenced work with him on the "McNamara study" in 1967.

how the "Christian Science Monitor (CSM)" came into possession of the "Pentagon papers" which were published in the CSM during June of 1971. It was [REDACTED] understanding that the papers had been received on Saturday, 6/26/71, perused on 6/27/71, printed on Monday, 6/28/71 for distribution on 6/29/71. John Hughes, Editor; David K. Willis, American News Editor; and Geoffrey Godsell, Overseas News Editor, had studied the papers to determine whether the contents constituted a threat to the security of the U.S. and concluded that they did not. It was the decision of these individuals to publish the "Pentagon papers" over the objections of other persons on the editorial staff of the CSM.

[REDACTED] revealed that some of the editorial writers were of the opinion that no newspaper men in America should be permitted to formulate an opinion pertaining to the possible detrimental effect of publishing purloined Government papers since to allow this would cause chaos in the proper operations of the Government. [REDACTED] revealed that John Hughes became Managing Editor of the CSM in 1970 and subsequently Editor and it was [REDACTED] feeling that the preceding CSM administration would never have published the papers. Since Hughes has taken over, the conservative attitude of CSM has been changing to a more liberal one.

[REDACTED] formerly occupied by Spencer Marx, turned over to our Boston Office a paper cutter which was abandoned in the apartment of Marx and believed utilized by the Sheehans during reproduction of the "Pentagon papers" during the period 3/20-23/71. [REDACTED] stated Marx's lease of the apartment expired 8/31/71 and she considers the paper cutter along with two chairs as having been abandoned by Marx. The paper cutter will be forwarded by the Boston Office for examination for latent fingerprints and for retention for possible future comparison to determine whether papers of interest had been cut by this particular instrument.
